TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for my colleague Ms. Michelle McClean. I first met Ms. McClean when I joined the staff of the Alleyne School as Deputy Principal at the start of the academic school year 2015 – 2016.

Ms. McClean is a trained graduate Science teacher and teaches in all five-year group levels of the school. On a yearly basis, she prepares students to write Human and Social Biology at the general proficiency level of the Caribbean Examination Council. According to my analysis of our Caribbean Examination Council (CSEC) results, her performance annually is above the national average and exceeds all other department members. Ms. McClean is an accomplished science teacher; the school and students have benefited tremendously from her contributions.

At a professional level she

1. Is punctual for school daily.
2. Works well with colleagues, is very polite and approachable.
3. Displays good classroom and time management skills.
4. Has a good command of the subject content and the ability to impart it to her students.

The school host extracurricular activities during school time and she facilitates the Environmental Club during her non-contact time. Her passion for science and the environment is important to her. The Alleyne Schools' motto is for other not self, and she lives this belief.
